

Who runs the art prize? - The prize is run by Ecclestone Art.

Who judges the work? - The list of judges can be viewed on the Holly Bush prize website at Meet the Team

How do I enter? - Fill in the online entry form and then press the PayPal button to pay - all done!

What does it mean, I can enter 2 works? - It means you can enter 1 or 2 artworks for £15.

I can't fill the form in online what do I do? - E mail hollybushprize@gmail.com and we will send you an entry form which you can print out, fill it in by hand and then scan, or photograph it and send to us. OR you can copy and paste the details into the email. Just don't forget to attach images of your work!

What if I don't want to write an artist's statement, I don't think I can? -

That's ok you can enter without writing an Artist's statement but you won't be considered for the winning prize, just the runner-up prizes and you can still be in the exhibition.

How will I know you have received my entry? - If you completed online then it will tell you it is a success. PayPal will send you a receipt for the payment.

I won't be able to deliver or collect my work on the dates shown in the Terms and Conditions, does this matter? - You must be able to deliver or collect your work on the dates and times shown, or have someone do it for you. You may also use a delivery service. If your work does not turn up on time you may have to forfeit your place.

I have checked the terms and conditions and I won't be able to make the prize-giving will that matter? - You will not be considered for the top prize if you are unable to make the prize-giving but you can still be considered for the runner-up prizes.

Why does my work have to be no wider than 60 cm wide? - This is so that we can exhibit all 22 of the finalists work in the best possible way.

Why does my work have to be for sale? - The commission made from selling your work helps to fund next year's prize.

Why can I not sell my work for more than £850? - The prize is for emerging artists and the judges and Ecclestone Art consider this the maximum price the market will bear right now for a work by an emerging artist. Although this may be debatable, the work does need to be considered affordable to help it sell.

When will I find out if I am a Finalist? - The finalists will be announce no later than 14th June 2021 (Covid 19 may mean this date gets changed)
